

RECRUITING UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH ASSISTANTS!

Join the Happiness & Well-being Lab!

We study how people pursue happiness, cultivate meaning, and connect with others. Our research explores well-being across everyday life, culture, and the places and spaces that shape our experiences.

Want to get involved?

We are seeking undergraduate research assistants who would like to gain hands-on experience with psychological research by contributing to projects on happiness, well-being, meaning, and places.

Research Areas

- Happiness & well-being
- Meaning in life
- Places and spaces
- Culture
