Insights into Healthy Aging: Promoting Healthy Minds, Brains & Lives
A fully-online undergraduate certificate program
OPEN TO ALL MAJORS

About the Certificate
- Career-centered. Prepares students for a variety of careers related to the field of aging.
- Individualized. Students select courses to complement their career goals/objectives.
- Comprehensive. Focuses on healthy aging through a multidisciplinary and sociocultural lens.
- Research-based. Emphasizes research-based principles in the field of aging.

Courses & Certificate Completion
Students will receive a certificate after the successful completion of only four courses!

Required Foundation Course:
- Fundamentals of Aging: A Multidisciplinary Perspective

Choose from courses including but not limited to:
- Adult Development & Healthy Aging
- Alzheimer’s Disease and Related Dementias
- Relationships and Aging in a Sociocultural Context
- Caring for Aging Adults and Self-Care for Caregivers
- Ethical Issues in the Care of Older Adults

Career Readiness Skills
Students develop transferrable skills that are highly valued by employers which includes:
- Critical Thinking/Problem Solving
- Ethical and Social Responsibility
- Inclusivity
- Teamwork and Collaboration
- Leadership
- Global/Intercultural Fluency

Ready to take the next step in preparing for your career?
Talk to a Psychology Advisor about completing the certificate today:
psychology-advising@email.arizona.edu

MORE INFORMATION: PSYCHOLOGY.ARIZONA.EDU/CERTIFICATE